

The objectives of this project are:

- To provide a supportive and stimulating environment for all members of the school (students, teachers, staff, administrator, and parents).
- To encourage all members of the school to reach their full potential as independent learners and develop a positive attitude to life-long learning.
- To foster the enjoyment of reading as a recreational activity in all members of the school.
- To develop an awareness in all members of the school the importance of books as a means of recording and sharing human achievements, failures and aspirations.
- To contribute to the development of positive personal attributes within each member.

The Honesty Reading Station Rules are:

- Self-service only
- Read inside the station only
- Write your name in the Logbook/Reader's Card
- Read book you like
- Return books to their proper place
- Always remember, "honesty is the best policy"
